

little better idea tomorrow morning when debate starts on special order. We will try to adjourn just a little bit early this afternoon so that we'll be able to gather downstairs with the Revenue Committee. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Did you want to say something about recessing?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Haberman, are you the next speaker?

PRESIDENT: Oh.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Mr. President, I move to recess till one-thirty this afternoon.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye, opposed nay. We are adjourned till...we are recessed till one-thirty.

RECESS

PRESIDENT NICHOL PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: I understand the Education Committee is having a brief meeting and should be in shortly. May I introduce a guest over under the north balcony, former legislator Cal Carsten. Would you take a bow, Cal, please. And I have a very special guest over under the south balcony, Eva Jean Beltner of Scottsbluff. Eva Jean, would you please rise. Thank you both for being with us today. Balcony guests of Senator Morehead, we have Judith Kluge, Kerrian Kluge and little Kalyn Kluge. Would you folks please rise and be recognized. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: As I understood, Mr. Clerk, we were discussing a motion by Senator Rod Johnson, was amended by, or was attempted to be amended by Senator Vard Johnson and I have Senator Haberman as the first speaker up on that amendment to the amendment. Do you recall what it was about, Senator Haberman, or do we need to refresh your memory? Senator Haberman, before you start. (Gavel.) Let's hold the volume down a little bit, shall we, so we can hear the speakers. Senator Haberman.
